	Name	Position	Phone
Correspondent	Philip Khachirov	Commander of the North Ossetian Peacekeeping Battalion	895 342175
Respondent	Arsen Kvezerov	Deputy Commander of the 7th Battalion of South Ossetian de facto MOD	899 465512

Language of conversation is Ossetian

Khachirov: Yes, I am listening.

Kvezerov: Can you hear me, it has calmed down a bit, but what is their task, of those standing behind you?

Khachirov: They know their job, they have to "work."

Kvezerov: So, based on what their position is, the coming down of the first (not clear) their people are driving around and changing places and (not clear) they can quietly put it down.

Khachirov: I will tell them.

Kvezerov: Let them change it Shotaevich. Let him bring just one down there, nothing else is necessary, or let him support the fire from above, and we will also help him, I'm here at the spot, if anyone has a phone, give them my number and they will contact me on the radio transmitter and I will give them the coordinates.
