Language of Conversation is Ossetian

Chochiev: Yes Alik.
Lagkoev: How are you doing Elioiovich?
Chochiev: Good morning.
Lagkoev: How shall we deal with yesterday's matter? That document is very tough. They were swearing, trying to attack, forced them to lie on the ground and were shooting in the air.
Chochiev: Who were forced to lie on the ground?
Lagkoev: The monitoring group. They were shooting above their heads. They got afraid and lay on the ground. They were trying to attack the Georgian and were swearing in Georgian.
Chochiev: Who?
Lagkoev: They. They were claiming to be from the Ministry of Interior but they were... "Opolchenie" [members of "South Ossetian" de facto regime irregular forces].
Chochiev: Have not you warned them in advance about going there?
Lagkoev: Yes I did. Elioiovich, I already told you yesterday.
Chochiev: They said no. Yesterday Kulakhmetov and I were there. What is written in that document?
Lagkoev: Well, general framework is set up.
Chochiev: Who was represented from our side?
Lagkoev: Jioev Fedia. Well, we'll do our best to soften it...
Chochiev: Well, he should not sign it and that's all.
Lagkoev: That does not suit us Elioiovich.
Chochiev: Show me the draft when you draw it up.

Lagkoev: Understand. All right.
Chochiev: Show it to me without signing.
Lagkoev: Ok, Ok, I understand.
